

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Privacy Act of 1974

Systems of Records

Note: Systems of records for the Central Intelligence Agency are current as of September 7, 1976.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL ROUTINE USES

The following routine uses apply to, and are incorporated by reference into, each system of records set forth below.

1. In the event that a system of records maintained by the Central Intelligence Agency to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory, in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Central Intelligence Agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, or the letting of a contract.

3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.

5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private release legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

System name: Clinical and Psychiatric Files (Employees).

System location:

Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: CIA employees and their dependents; military and Federal civilian employees to CIA detailees and their dependents; and retired or separated employees and their dependents.

Categories of records in the system: Contains all physical examinations, laboratory data, X-rays, private physician reports, reports of on-the-job injuries and illnesses; results of psychiatric screening and testing; reports of psychiatric interviews; records of immunizations, and related medical material.

Authority for maintenance of the system: National Security Act of 1947, as Amended—Public Law 80-253.

Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as Amended—Public Law 81-110.

Section 506(a), Federal Records Act of 1950 (44 U.S.C., Section 3101).

Title 5, U.S.C., Section 7901.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: By Agency personnel for evaluation of suitability for duty, health maintenance and in reviewing applications for medical disability retirement.

By the Civil Service Commission in the case of an employee under that system who applied for medical disability.

By the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Department of Labor, in the case of an employee who applies for its compensation.

To provide information to Federal agencies for employees who are being assigned or detailed to those agencies.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Files are maintained in paper form filed in an identifying jacket. Certain information—medical history, laboratory and assignment data—are contained on magnetic tape and punch cards. Prints from the automated data processing are filed in the subject's medical file.

Retrievability: Access is by a file identification number which is, in turn, cross referenced to a name.

Safeguards: Files are stored in vaulted main file room. During periods when files are undergoing active processing they are secured in locked safes. Unauthorized entry into the vaulted file room is controlled via an alarm system. Access to computer information is controlled by limiting the number of medical personnel approved for such access by an identifying password. Access to the main vault file room, locked safes and the Agency Records Center is controlled by limiting the number of personnel authorized such access.

Retention and disposal: Files are retained until such time as the employee retires or separates from the Agency—at which time, they are retired to the Agency Records Center. To meet statutory requirements, they are then retained for a period of 75 years from date of birth. Destruction of records will be accomplished through burning. Magnetic tapes are degaussed.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Paper, microfilm, magnetic tape and punch cards.

Retrievability: By name.

Safeguards: Medical files are stored in vaulted main file room. During periods when files are undergoing active processing they are secured in locked safes. Access to computer information is controlled by limiting the number of medical personnel approved for such access by an identifying password. Access to the main vault file room, locked safes and the Agency Records Center is controlled by limiting the number of personnel authorized such access.

Retention and disposal: Files on employees, dependents and detailees are retained in Headquarters until retirement or separation at which time they are retired to the Agency Records Center, where they are retained 30 years and then destroyed by the Records Center by burning. Successful applicants' files are treated the same as employees. Unsuccessful applicant files are retained for a period of five years and then destroyed by burning.
